

Treasures Along the Path Study Guide

Secret Teachings in the Bible Part One

Treasures Offering: April 2013

Archive Date: Circa 1980

Key Points

God is center everywhere, circumference nowhere. Try to see all things from this perspective instead of looking at the periphery from the outside in.

Each one of us is a manifestation of a central spirit trying to reach out and experience Itself in the universe.

There are two categories of mankind, those who are seeking something greater than themselves, and those who are seeking the limited fulfillment of the ego.

Guru Nanak said "So long as there was "I", the Lord was not. Now that there is the Lord, "I" is gone.

The real Promised Land is the Light that is promised to every soul.

Question

Reflect upon or discuss one or more of the scripture parallels in this talk such as the tree of life as mentioned in the Bible and the body as an upturned tree as described in the Bhagavad-Gita and that eastward in Eden is the point between the eyebrows.

Loose Pride of Position

Treasures Offering: April 2013

Archive Date: Circa 1978

Key Points

A leader is a servant, not a dictator.

There is nothing in the universe that is more important than you are, and there is nothing in this universe less important than you are.

A sign of our spiritual development is how joyous you can be in not having any kind of authority, but instead knowing in your heart that you are God's servant.

On the spiritual path, it is a delusion to think that one job is more important than another.

Question

What are some ways that you see yourself as a servant to others. How might you serve them better?